Product Discontinuation Announcement – Lumberg Automation M23 Series Product Portfolio

Dear Valued Customer,

We are writing to inform you that, effective immediately, Cable S3792 will be officially discontinued from our product line due to consistently low demand.

This decision comes after a thorough market analysis and a review of the ongoing viability of our products. We have determined that continuing the production of Cable S3792 is no longer sustainable. Discontinuing this product allows us to focus our resources on items with stronger demand and better alignment with our customers' future needs.

We have listed the products affected on this notification on page 2 with alternative products to consider.
